Job Description, Essential Functions, Tasks and Skills:

The Port of Seattle is a municipal corporation created on September 5, 1911 by the voters of King County. The Port of Seattle is divided into operating divisions, plus other departments that support the divisions and the broad mission of the Port: 1) Aviation Division, 2) Maritime Division, and 3) Economic Development Division.

The Maritime Division owns and operates approximately 1,200 acres of moorage, cargo-related, and cruise ship facilities. The Maritime Division employs a maintenance staff, which is responsible for general facility upkeep, pier and moorage system repairs, and utility maintenance.

This job analysis is for an individual working as a Truck Driver for Marine Maintenance.

Work is generally performed on the day shift, Monday through Friday, with limited overtime by seniority.

Essential Functions:

The primary responsibility of the Truck Driver is to support the other trades in Marine Maintenance by retrieving, transporting, and delivering materials and other items required to complete various projects. Truck Drivers may also be asked to perform more general hauling duties for other groups within the Port of Seattle. Vehicles operated range in size from pickup trucks to large tractor-trailers.

Examples of Tasks Assigned to a Truck Driver

- Meet/connect with Crew Chief on a daily basis.
- Receive and or review written or oral instructions about assigned work tasks.
- Prepare and or review job hazard analysis, as needed.

The above job analysis represents the requirements of a specific job based on personal observations, discussions with employer representatives, and/or workers. On occasion, practicality and feasibility prevent the direct observation and/or gathering of objective quantifiable data. For this reason, a "best estimate" may have been used when reporting physical demand frequencies.
