

This Week @ SEA

Airport News (May 22 - 29)

- Alaska and Hainan New Route Announcement - Two new nonstop services started at SEA Airport, with an early morning Alaska Airlines flight to Toronto-Pearson (YYZ) followed by Hainan Airline's newly announced service to Chongqing (CKG), China.
- Memorial Day TSA Travel Tips - TSA is prepared for the highest passenger volumes the agency has seen at airport security checkpoints nationwide during this summer's travel season, which begins Memorial Day weekend and runs through Labor Day. TSA is continuing to modernize airport security checkpoints across the country with a focus on enhanced detection methods to best secure the aviation system.
- Feeding Communities and Preventing Food Waste - SEA Airport aims to reduce emissions and waste while supporting neighboring communities. Started by the Port of Seattle in 2006, SEA's Food Donation Program redirects perishable prepared food that is still safe to eat to the Des Moines Area Food Bank so it can feed local community members instead of going to waste.

Behind the Barricade Episode 1 | Rooftop Kickoff

We're kicking off a new series called Behind the Barricades (BTB), where our ORAT (Operational Readiness, Activation, and Transition) Senior Manager, Charles Goedken, will go behind the scenes on projects happening around the Airport. It will give a glimpse of the exciting projects and progress being made every day at SEA. Find out more about this and other Upgrades coming to SEA.
