This Week @ SEA

Airport News (July 17 - 24)

- Sensory Room Key Code Entry Now Required - For access to this space, please call (206) 787-5229 and press 1 to request the key code. The Sensory Room is unavailable daily from midnight to 4 a.m. and is for travelers with disabilities use only.
- New China Airlines Service to Taipei - Taiwan-based China Airlines launched five new nonstop flights a week to Taipei (TPE) from Seattle-Tacoma International Airport (SEA) starting July 14, 2024. SEA welcomes the announcement as passengers will now have even more options to reach Asia directly.
- SEA Route Maps Updated - Have you kept track of all the new services from SEA announced recently? Review the nonstop international routes and domestic routes on the website to stay up-to-date.
- Smarte Carte Baggage Wrapping - Smarte Carte now offers a Bag Wrap Operation. Wrap any bag no matter the size or weight for $20 plus tax.
- Main Terminal Low Voltage Project Impacts - Barricades have gone up in ticketing along wall in front of emergency stair off mezzanine, reducing the footprint in the breezeway from Southwest ticketing counter to Checkpoint 3.
- Restroom Impacts - To support smart restroom installation, there will be overnight restroom closures near gate A4 and A9 on July 23-24 and near gate A1 on July 24-25.

SEA Celebrates 75 Years of Service and Connection

Happy 75th birthday to Seattle-Tacoma International Airport (SEA)! From humble beginnings during World War II to becoming one of the busiest airports in the United States, SEA has continually evolved to meet the needs of travelers and the aviation industry. Let's take a journey through the decades to see how SEA has transformed over the years, playing many crucial roles as an essential lifeline and a vibrant community connector for the Puget Sound region.
